RULES OF CONDUCT

Please complete and return this form by March 1, 2016

Students: The Students Inside Albany Conference is designed to give outstanding students the opportunity to learn more about their state government and to have fun. The following rules are designed to give each student a safe and enjoyable experience. Please sign below when you have read and agree to follow the rules listed below.

1. Students must be in (and remain in) their respective rooms by 11:00 p.m. each night.
2. Students are NOT permitted to leave the Hotel property at any point without the expressed consent of a League staff member. When permission is granted to leave the Hotel property, a League staff member must ALWAYS accompany the student.
3. Students are not to partake in drugs or alcohol while at the conference.
4. There will be no smoking allowed by students while at the conference.
5. No girls are to be found in boy's rooms and vice versa.
6. Students are expected to participate in group activities. A student will not leave a group activity unless excused by a League staff member.
7. Anyone found in violation of any of #1-6 above, regardless of the reason, will be asked to leave the Students Inside Albany conference. Parents will be called immediately and asked to make arrangements to pick up their child.
8. Students are expected to respect the hotel property. Should an accident occur, the student agrees to notify a League staff member immediately. Parents agree to assume responsibility for damage done by their child and to reimburse the League of Women Voters of New York State Education Foundation, Inc. for any liability it may incur as the result of such damage.
9. Students are asked to turn off their cell phone off during the hours of the conference.
