

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

In 1920, founder Carrie Chapman Catt urged the newly formed League of Women Voters to “finish the fight” and work to end all discrimination against women.

LWV initially concentrated on the status and rights of women but now strives to improve our democratic institutions by addressing a wide range of issues of concern to all citizens (women and men).

LWV positions on issues are developed through a grassroots consensus process starting with local leagues.

LWV remains a non-partisan organization that never supports or opposes candidates or parties.
