Webinar: Vision Grants with a Focus on Women's History
Wednesday, March 9, 2016 from 2:00-3:00pm

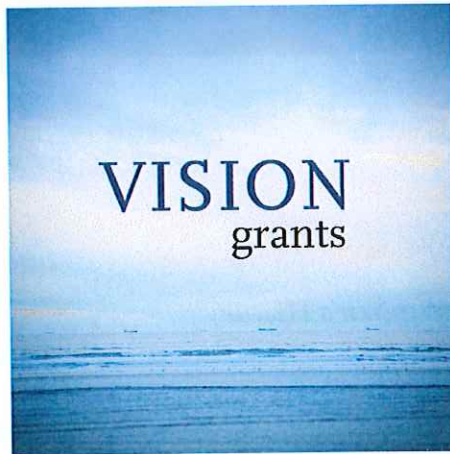

Join the Council grants staff to learn more about how Vision grant funding can be used to support the planning of dynamic humanities programs both on the general subject of women's history and in preparation for the upcoming Women's Suffrage Centennial.

New York Council for the Humanities: GRANTS

Grant support is awarded to nonprofits that inspire New Yorkers to explore what it means to be human. Through two competitive grant programs, the Council offers nimble and responsive grants to support the diverse arts and culture sector of New York State.

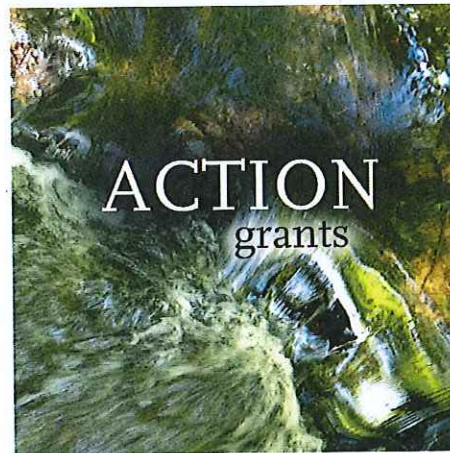

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis provided materials are received at least three months prior to the start of the project.

$1,500 to develop your ideas for public humanities programs that are built in partnership with your community.

You Should Apply If:

You are working with an exciting group of people and want to brainstorm how the humanities can enrich your program ideas.

$5,000 to launch humanities programs that are dynamic and address meaningful issues across the state.

You Should Apply If:

You know the who, what, when, and how of your public humanities programs and are ready to make them a reality.

If you are a new applicant, please feel free to schedule a time to chat with someone on our staff about your proposal or grant idea.

Visit www.nyhumanities.org/grants/contact to make an appointment
