

Anyone may submit an application for an Early Mail Ballot without indicating a reason. Complete and return the application and a ballot will be mailed to you. See more info at: <https://elections.ny.gov/request-ballot>.

How do I fill out the absentee ballot or early mail ballot application?

If you are in jail for any reason other than a felony conviction (this includes anyone who is awaiting grand jury action, awaiting trial, or serving a sentence for a misdemeanor), fill in your name and the permanent address where you are registered to vote and fill in the appropriate information. Write the jail or prison address as the location where the ballot should be mailed, or designate a person to pick it up, or a person's address to receive it in the mail for you.

If I register to vote, will I be called for jury duty?

The rolls of prospective jurors are compiled from a number of sources, so registering to vote does not necessarily mean that you will be called. Similarly, not registering to vote does not necessarily mean that you will not be called for jury duty. If you are called and feel that you cannot serve, jurors can often be excused for a valid health reason.

To obtain a voter registration form, absentee ballot application, or early mail ballot application, or to find out dates for the elections, for registering, for filing applications and submitting ballots:

- Call the NYS Board of Elections at 1-800-367-8683, or download the forms/calendar from the web site for the New York State Board of Elections (www.elections.ny.gov).
- Call, write to, or download forms/calendar from the web site for your local county Board of Elections. You can get their contact information from the NYS Board of Elections.

To check your voter registration status:

You should receive in the mail before the election a card that informs you of your polling place. If you do not receive such a card, call your local Board of Elections and ask them:

1. Am I registered to vote?
2. Is my registration status set to "Active"?
If not, to what is it set?
3. Will my name appear in the polling place roll book on Election Day?

If you are not on the rolls at your polling place

If you believe you are registered to vote and are not on the rolls, ask for an "affidavit" (paper) ballot, and ask the poll worker for advisement about following up on your status. You are legally entitled to an affidavit (paper) ballot and must be given one.

YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE IN NEW YORK STATE

Individuals with Criminal Convictions or Detained in Jail or Prison

Voting is an important part of being a U. S. citizen. The people who are elected this year will make decisions about things that directly affect your life, like your taxes, the education of your children and/or grandchildren, and changes in the laws of our state and nation. Voting is your chance to choose the decision makers and tell them what you want. To be eligible to vote in New York State, you must:

- be a United States citizen
- be 18-years old by the date of the general, primary or other election in which you want to vote
- live at your present New York State address at least 30 days before an election
- not be currently incarcerated for a felony conviction
- not claim the right to vote elsewhere
- have registered to vote
- not be currently adjudged incompetent or incapacitated to vote by order of a court

I have a criminal history. Am I eligible to vote?

YES. In New York, you CAN vote with a criminal record if you:

- Were convicted of a misdemeanor;
- Are on parole;
- Are on probation;
- Are in jail or prison for any reason other than a felony conviction. This includes anyone who is awaiting grand jury action, awaiting trial, or serving a sentence for a misdemeanor;
- Were not sentenced to prison for a felony conviction or had your prison sentence for a felony conviction suspended;
- Served your maximum prison sentence for a felony conviction; or
- Were pardoned

NO. In New York, you CANNOT vote with a criminal record if you:

- Are currently incarcerated for a felony conviction.

Note: Once you have been released from incarceration, your right to vote will automatically be restored; however, you will need to re-register to vote, even if you were previously registered.

Can I vote in New York if I'm on probation or parole?

Yes. If you are otherwise qualified to vote, you may register and vote in New York State if you're on probation or parole, even if convicted of a felony.

How do I register to vote?

You may register to vote online at the State Board of Elections website; see: <https://elections.ny.gov/voter-registration-process>. Or you may register by completing and submitting a voter registration form. You can preregister when you are 16- or 17-years old; however, you cannot vote unless you are 18-years old by the date of the general, primary or other election in which you want to vote. You may preregister/register in person at your local Board of Elections or at any state agency participating in the Agency-Based voter registration center (see state BOE website for list). You may preregister/register by mail. Forms are available from your county Board of Elections, town and city halls, post office, political parties, various state offices, and the League of Women Voters. Contact the League of Women Voters of New York State, the New York State Board of Elections, or your county Board of Elections to have a voter registration form sent to you. You may also download a voter registration form in New York State from www.elections.ny.gov. Complete, sign, and submit the form, either in person or by mail. If you have a current New York driver's license and internet access, you can register to vote online with the New York DMV. Visit the following website to register: <https://dmv.ny.gov/more-info/electronic-voter-registration-application>.

Do I have to have a Certificate of Relief from Disabilities or other documentation about my criminal history in order to register to vote?

No. You do not need to provide any documentation about your criminal history in order to register.

What address should I put on the voter registration form if I am in jail?

If you are in jail or prison for any reason other than a felony conviction (this includes anyone who is awaiting grand jury action, awaiting trial, or serving a sentence for a misdemeanor), you should register to vote in the county of your permanent (home) address. Put your permanent home address on the registration form, not the address of the facility where you are incarcerated.

How do I vote if I'm in jail?

If you are in jail for any reason other than a felony conviction (this includes anyone who is awaiting grand jury action, awaiting trial, or serving a sentence for a misdemeanor), you may vote by absentee ballot or by early mail ballot. To get an absentee ballot or early mail ballot, you must fill out an application form. You can request the application form by writing to your county Board of Elections or you can download one from the New York State Board of Elections website (www.elections.ny.gov). See the instructions below for writing to the Board of Elections; if the information you provide them in the letter is sufficient, they may consider the letter an application. Upon completion, your application must be mailed or delivered to your county Board of Elections. Once they have received your application, your county Board of Elections will mail your ballot to you. To vote by absentee ballot or early mail in New York State, your ballot must be post-marked on or before Election Day and must be received by the Board of Elections no later than seven days after Election Day.

How should I request an absentee ballot or early mail ballot?

You may request an absentee ballot or early mail ballot to vote by mail. See the state BOE for more information at: <https://elections.ny.gov/request-ballot>.

Request an absentee ballot or early mail ballot by sending a letter to the Board of Elections of the county where you are registered. The letter must be received by the county Board of Elections no earlier than 30 days and no later than seven days before the election. The letter must contain the following information:

- the address where you registered
- the address where the ballot is to be sent
- the reason for the request (absentee ballot)
- the signature of the voter

An application and your ballot will then be mailed to you. The application form must be completed and mailed with your ballot. Your ballot must be postmarked no later than the day before the election.

Alternatively, you may pick up an application from your county Board of Elections. Upon completion, applications must be mailed to your county Board of Elections no later than the seventh day before the election, or they may be delivered in person no later than the day before the election. You will then receive your ballot, which you must return to the board with a postmark no later than the day before the election.

If you cannot pick up your ballot in person, or will not be able to receive it through the mail on time, you have the right to designate someone to pick your ballot up for you as late as the day before the election. Only the person designated on your application may pick up and deliver your ballot.
